

Submitted photo

Sheriff Michael F. Barruzza (standing) receives a $500 grant for the "Buck the Buckle-Up Dog" safety campaign from Roxanne Merritt, manager of Millville Wal-Mart. Also pictured are G. William Garrison, traffic safety coordinator, (kneeling), Dawn Berry, Wal-Mart community relations and Buck.

Store gives money to aid seat belt education

From staff reports

The Millville Wal-Mart has awarded a $500 grant to "Buck the Buckle-Up Dog." This grant will aid in educating children about the importance of using child safety seats and seat belts.

The grant was presented to Cumberland County Sheriff Michael F. Barruzza to purchase bookmarks and reflective zipper pulls as part of the Sheriff's Traffic Program, which includes the "Buck" campaign.

"We appreciate WalMart's partnering with us and helping defray the cost of promoting Buck's traffic safety message," Sheriff Barruzza said. The Cumberland County Sheriff's Traffic Safety Program is funding by the New Jersey Division of Highway Traffic Safety.