

BUCK THE BUCKLE UP DOG PAYS A VISIT

Staff photos/Charles J. Olson

Elizabeth Stidham, 6, a first grade student at Silver Run School in Millville, is greeted by Buck the Buckle Up Dog of the Cumberland County Sheriff's Traffic Safety Program during Buck's visit to the school on Tuesday.

Canine teaches kids about traffic safety

From staff reports

MILLVILLE — Silver Run School's special visitor Tuesday wore an orange work vest when he arrived on all fours to teach students about traffic safety.

Buck the Buckle Up Dog made appearances at all of the school's first-grade classes.

His message was part of the Traffic Safety Program at the Cumberland County Sheriff's Department.

Bill Garrison, traffic safety coordinator, reviewed the Five Safety Rules with each class.

The rules:

- Buckle your seatbelt.
- Buckle your bike helmet.
- Walk facing traffic and ride with traffic.

- Cross at intersections.
- Be seen.

Michael Lipschitz, 6, a first grade student at Silver Run School in Millville, looks at a card featuring a picture and information about Buck the Buckle Up Dog.

Makalah Rodriguez, 6, a first grade student pets Buck the Buckle Up Dog.

Staff photos by Dominick J. Rebeck Jr.

Buck stops here

Buck, the Buckle-Up Dog from the Cumberland County Sheriff's Traffic Safety Department, visited first-graders at the Silver Run School in Millville on Tuesday. Buck's job is to emphasize to children the importance of buckling their seatbelts while riding in a car.

Above, Buck gets acquainted with Isis Blocker and Brandon Kiesel.

At left, Bill Garrison, of the Sheriff's Department, with the dog.